Rural women leaders can change the world!

Reminder to nominate Candidates for the 2019 Prize for women's creativity in rural life

Dear Friends and Partners,

We are accepting nominations for the 2019 Prize for for women's creativity in rural life. Guidelines are published on our website, together with the Nomination Form for the 2019 submissions of candidates.

Deadline: 30 April 2019.

For new partners, the Prize for women's creativity in rural life aims to draw international attention to laureate's contributions to achieve sustainable development, household food security and peace. While rural women are vital in providing examples of sound practices in their communities, they still do not have full access to tools needed for their development, such as education, credit, land rights and participation in decision making.

We are starting an additional Fund for "Rural Women Movements Awards" to help speed up the power for change. To contribute to our Empowerment Fund, visit our Donation Page. The era for gender justice has begun. To read about the 2018 prizewinners, visit our website www.woman.ch

We thank you for your participation and look forward to receiving your candidates. Kindly respect the deadline and criteria for nominations.

We will also inform you once our 2018 edition of the "17 Days of activism campaign for the empowerment of rural women and their communities 1-17 October" is revised and published on our website. www.woman.ch.

Dear Friends and Partners,

It is crucial to making progress across the many Sustainable Development Goals and Targets and the systematic mainstreaming of a gender perspective in the implementation of the SDG Agenda 2030 is key.

Cordially yours,

Elly Pradervand, WWSF President and CEO
